The “Nuts and Bolts” of What’s Happening at RT of DC

Shop Amazon for the Holidays and Support RTDC

Are you planning to holiday shop on Amazon.com? Do you know someone who will? Please, instead of going right to Amazon’s website, go to www.rebuildingtogetherdc.org and use the Amazon search box at the top of our page to make your purchases. Just type in whatever you’re looking for—books, CDs, clothes— and you’ll automatically get to the Amazon website to make your purchases. When you use the Amazon.com Search Box on our website, Rebuilding Together of Washington, DC receives a small commission from Amazon.com.

Please do your holiday shopping by going to www.rebuildingtogetherdc.org to buy from Amazon.

Ask your friends and family to do the same. Thank you for your support!

Alternative Gift Giving

Don’t let gifts go to waste or sit in a closet untouched. Give a gift that gives back to DC’s lowest income residents who desperately need your help.

For any amount from $10 to $6,000 (an entire house sponsorship), we can provide a beautiful holiday card announcing your gift to a Rebuilding Together DC family in honor of anyone on your gift list. We certainly realize that during the holidays families look forward to opening gifts... might we suggest making an alternative gift from Rebuilding Together DC an additional gift in cases where the recipient wants the joy of opening a box or make it a stocking stuffer? Just email us at rtdc@rebuildingtogetherdc.org or call us at 202-965-2824 to make arrangements.

Our Mission

Since 1983, Rebuilding Together of Washington, DC has been working to preserve and revitalize low-income homes and community facilities in our Nation’s Capital. With the generous support of sponsors, volunteers and donors, we make free home repairs for low-income DC homeowners who are Veterans, elderly, disabled or caring for young children in seriously deteriorating conditions and for nonprofit community centers that serve DC’s most vulnerable citizens of all ages. Our home repairs enable low-income elderly and disabled homeowners to stay in their homes, where they can live in warmth and safety with independence and dignity and young children to be raised in a safe home environment.

We Kare-oke Event: December 21, 2011

The Stone and Holt Weeks Foundation, the founders of our Green Hammer Award, is hosting “We Kare-oke: A Night of Music and Meaning” to benefit Rebuilding Together of DC and several charities for which Stone and Holt volunteered in until their untimely death in July 2009. The event will take place at Union Jack’s in Bethesda Wednesday, December 21, 2011 from 8pm to 12am. There will be karaoke, dancing, contests, giveaways, and more. Please, spread the word and join us for this very special night to honor Stone and Holt.

Holiday Season Food and Gift Giving: Sign Up To Provide for a RTDC Family

The holidays are fast approaching and many individuals, offices, places of worship, and civic groups like to provide gifts and foodstuffs to families that have applied for our services. Our files bulge with tragic stories of families who will not have any funds available for food or gifts without your help. Just call us and we can give you the name of a family for you to share the joy of giving with this holiday season.
